

Making Your Mind Up

Love is a complicated thing...Lottie Carlyle is happy enough. Living in a beautiful cottage with her two adorable-sometimes-kids in an idyllic village, on good terms with her ex-husband, and with friends all around, everything is going just fine. But when she meets her new boss, her peaceful world is thrown into delightful, exciting, and frustrating chaos. Tyler is perfect for Lottie, but her kids do not agree. To make matters worse, the handsome and mysterious Seb appears on the scene, intriguing-and distracting-Lottie and charming her children, making it more and more difficult for her to make up her mind...Very nicely done... Jill Mansells chorus of sharp-witted youth, shaking sticks at the foibles of their elders, is delightful. -Daily ExpressA smashing read that both delights and surprises the reader. ?The SunPraise for Thinking of You: Mansell is like a Michelin-rated chef: She may use common ingredients, but under her sure hand the results are deliciously superior. -Kirkus Humorous, sometimes poignant... Her breezy style resembles that of Sophie Kinsella or Helen Fielding... readers will be delighted. -Booklist Jill Mansell combines, humor, friendship, romance and betrayal... keeps you wanting more. -Fresh FictionBeyond the fun, faulted characters, Mansell has a gift for humorous and witty dialogue that will leave readers in stitches... Mansell excels at creating relationships that are dynamic and complicated. -Savvy Verse and Wit
