

Treasured Memories of a Disciplined Wife

If you enjoy loving discipline, you'll love this book, a gently, retro-flavoured tale of domestic discipline. The premise involves a widowed old lady called Daisy. From her hospital bed towards the end of her life she takes great pleasure in looking back on events in her life via her treasured photograph album. Each picture triggers a memory of her life with her beloved husband Frank. The narrative draws the reader back into the past and we discover through a sequence of vignettes the stories associated with the various photographs. Some are poignant and nostalgic, others are amusing, and they all illustrate the depth of the relationship between Daisy and Frank who enjoyed a perfect though slightly unconventional marriage.
