

Broken Deeds, Broken Hearts

This book is a contemporary western sweet (clean) romantic suspense suitable for young adults and up. Story-line: At the age of fifteen, Carly Sue McCluskie ran away from the family farm to escape her abusive great uncle Ezra and the torment of her classmates only to end up homeless on the streets of Salt Lake City. Eight years later, she reluctantly returns to oversee Ezras estate and is not surprised to learn someone killed the old codger. What she didnt expect is someone attempting to kill her.Seth Wakely and his family have been feuding with the McCluskie for a lifetime, but that doesnt stop him from helping a neighbor in need. Seth is as surprised as a pig laying an egg when he learns someone in their little country town might have killed Ezra and now Carly Sues life is in danger.Seth finds himself torn between protecting her and the bitter memories of the past, including what he did to Carly Sue. Good thing he can send his Border collie, Jewel, over to protect her.Will their Hatfield and McCoy relationship continue, or will Carly Sue and Seth be able to conquer the anger which corrals them and, instead, learn to love?
