Wearing poppies on your lapel during the month of November. Enjoying local fiddlers playing music on Cape Breton Island. Cheering your favorite team on during Hockey Night. Swatting mosquitoes in Muskoka on the first long weekend in May. Driving the Trans-Canada Highway. Questioning why the ABC song ends in z and not zed. All these things are distinctly Canadian and now theres another one more: Chicken Soup for the Canadian Soul. Written by fellow Canadians from Cape Breton Island to Prince Edward Island, from Montreal to Vancouver, this book reveals the people, the history and the special moments that give Canada such a distinctive charm and character. With chapters including: On Being Canadian, Living Your Dream, Overcoming Obstacles, On Love, On Kindness and Making a Difference, these stories weave a rich tapestry of life from the people who call Canada home. Notable stories include: hockey player Paul Hendersons Goal of the Century; Chief Dan Georges recounting of his great land; Marilyn Bell DiLascios historic 1954 Lake Ontario swim; cartoonist Lynn Johnstons delightful story of an encounter with Wayne Gretzky; and journalist Sally Armstrongs details of Princess Dianas first trip to Canada. Like hearing a heartfelt version of O, Canada!, this book will instill renewed pride and patriotism in a well-deserving country and its people.
