

Disarm (A Romantic Suspense)

The case of his career Adam Spencer works for Intelligence the premier squad in the police department. When a drug dealer attempts to take over the city, Adam must go deep undercover in a prison in order to destroy the drug ring. Lydia Rice is new to the squad and has only six months of experience, but she's sure she can prove that she's the real deal. Her chance to show she belongs comes when she's put on the case with Adam. She knew it was a tough case, but she didn't know that she'd have to battle not just the drug dealers, but also her own emotions for Adam. The love of a lifetime

With their jobs on the line, Adam and Lydia try to deny their smokin' hot chemistry, but their love ignites despite their efforts. Between Adam's messy divorce from a cheating wife, and Lydia's desire to prove her worth on the job, neither sought love, but what can they do when their passions disarm them?
