

Portals: Arizona Crystals

A young woman who had a lot of pitfalls in life now has the chance to love an adventure. Her father, who lived a secret for his entire life, has passed away. Alexandria Wolf will take his place to protect the Portal, she is the new guardian. She will learn and do things beyond her imagination, things she never thought possible. Helping those who have passed find the light is just one of her responsibilities, Alex also learns that she can travel between Earth and the Other Side. A battle with the dark side trying to protect the Portal she guards will ensue. Jake Blue, the protector of the guardian, will battle by her side and they will find a love that grows stronger as they work together fighting against her family. Dating back some three hundred years to when twins were born, one the protector and the other the guardian of the Portal. Jealousy brought on by greed brings one back to battle to the death for control of the Portal of Arizona Crystals.
