

Admit One (Sweetwater Book 2)

Allison Hawbaker has spent the past year putting back the pieces of her shattered life. Recovering from both family crisis and personal tragedy, Allie throws herself into building a business with her childhood best friend while trying to put the past behind her. Part of Allie's past is British thespian Mason Armitage, the man she fell for and rebuffed a year ago. Now Mason's back, and Allie's in danger of losing her heart again. When she and Mason stumble across a grave robbery in progress, it causes a chain reaction that puts Allie in the crosshairs of criminal conspirators. Because sometimes the past won't stay buried literally.
