

Like a Lover (Housemates Book 2)

Josh has a plan: get through uni with a good degree and no debts. Focused on his goals, hes working as an escort to pay his way. He enjoys the no-strings sex and doesnt have the time or inclination for a relationship. Falling in love definitely isnt part of the deal especially not with a client. When Rupert meets Josh in a bar, hes smitten on sight. Hes never paid for sex before, but when Josh propositions him, he cant resist. He should have known one night would never be enough. Luckily for him, he has an inheritance to support his addiction to Josh, because his job in IT wouldnt cover the cost. With each appointment the lines get increasingly blurred. Something is developing between them that feels more like a relationship than a business transaction, but they come from different worlds and to go from client-and-escort to lovers seems impossible. If they want a future together, Josh and Rupert have a lot to overcome. Length: 49,000 words
