

Marriage Minded Lord (a Darrington family novel)

When an outrageous meeting leads to inappropriate desire, will family honor and duty destroy a chance for true love? Felix Alan Darrington, Earl of Swandon has been summoned to London by his mother. Though he has obligations to Parliament, his meddling parent has reminded him its time to do his duty, marry and provide her with grandchildren. But Felix refuses to wed under dictate. Hell choose the woman and the time, and if hes lucky hell marry for love. Clarice Delacroix is a ladys companion. Though shes an illegitimate daughter of a duke, her mother was a French opera singer which puts Clarice firmly between worlds. Possessed of a quick temper and a penchant for making pastries, she longs for adventure, romance and acceptance, but she refuses to be anyones mistress. Her mothers life is not for her. As Felix schemes to spend more time with Clarice and find out why the Frenchwoman intrigues him, the titled lady who wishes to be his countess conspires to keep them apart. Felix quickly finds that balancing relationships between family and love is not as easy as first thought, or as black and white. Someone in his circle isnt telling the truth, and the repercussions could prove deadly to Clarices future.
