

Even More Wisdom In The Streets

This book is one of a series which describe events and discussions in the streets opposite Petts Wood. Many of these events and discussions involve words and thoughts which are full of practical wisdom from the past and present. We can learn in one of the books how Sir Ranulph Fiennes managed to climb Everest using the phrase plod forever, We can learn from a priceless quote from Leonardo da Vinci. Each book has a summary at the end which will help you to remember key lessons about success in life. For example, this book has a key lesson: Success happens whenever you decide to do something and you DO IT. Or whenever you decide to NOT DO something and you DONT do it. I know it sounds simple, but 99% of people cant even do just that! Kacper Postawski
