Lust and friendship brought us together, but with the increasing demands of my two businesses, Hannahs thriving bakery, and our successful event-planning company, stability becomes my focus. Then a once-in-a-lifetime career opportunity takes me to the West Coast, and everything goes into a tailspin. Laughter, love, and excitement fill our lives, but Cade refuses to settle into the wonderful bliss we've found--he wants spectacular fireworks and an unshakable foundation. Driven like no one I've ever met, Cade insists a dream job across the country will be better for our future together, but I worry about whether we can survive the present apart. When intimate time diminishes...and lives get more hectic...Will a little bit of faith be all that it takes?
