

Whats in a Name?

Running for the wrong reason can still get you killed. Kelli Carpenter has changed her name, her appearance her life to avoid being connected to a crime she committed in self defense years ago. But just when she thinks she has nothing to fear, handsome stranger Blake Windsor shows up. He claims to be the handyman her boss sent to help complete the project shes working on Camp Getaway a place where inner city kids will get respite from concrete and drive-bys. Without Blakes skills, the refuge wont be completed on time. Against her instincts, she accepts his help. Blake Windsor, a corporate executive, begrudgingly returns to the blue-collar construction lifestyle he vowed to leave behind, hoping doing his boss this favor will advance his career. The woman he meets bears little resemblance to the woman hes supposed to find, but something about her mystifies him, and he continues his deception in order to learn more about her. When someone makes an attempt on Kellis life, she runs but she takes Blake with her. Keep your friends close but your enemies closer is her philosophy. And Kelli is convinced Blake knows something that will link her to her former lovers death, ending her life as she knows it.
