Can their love survive their different lifestyles, different worlds? Rufus is the worlds biggest celebrity. Kelly has no desire to be rich and famous. To be frank, shes happy in her little world, with her two lovely, crazy flatmates, drinking in the local pub. But with photographers circling, and a new group of high-profile, sophisticated friends to impress, can she ever stay the same sweet Kelly? And what of the women who surround Rufus? The beautiful ones, the rich ones, the desirable ones, and the downright unkind ones who set out to ruin Kellys relationship with her Hollywood hero? Will they ruin Kellys relationship, or is her love for Rufus strong enough to survive against the odds? Can a normal girl stay normal when she is plunged headfirst into an abnormal world?
