-----Endor sement from Bill Johnson, Bethel Church, Redding, CA...Equipping people is the most effective way to lead. Michael Adams has written a unique leadership book birthed out of his walk with Christ in the marketplace. The perspective he brings is contrary to what some may view as leading. Michael learned from the greatest example, Jesus, who was a servant to all.
This book offers keys on how to effectively develop servant leadership in yourself, and recognize the gifts in those you lead and empower them in their gifting. In the call to infiltrate the marketplace with the Kingdom, this book effectively connects business principles with our Heavenly mandate. The world is crying out for excellence and skill in the secular world, what better answer is there than Spirit-filled leaders carrying the Kingdom into the corporate world as servants. -----Endorsement by Bobby Norment, CEO, Rivendell Sanctuary, Inc...With this book, Mike Adams has brought real clarity and simplicity to what Jesus meant by servant leadership. We often hear, the job as leaders is not to be served, but to serve others. Most leaders dont realize that they have the awesome responsibility to recognize, raise up and release the gifts the Lord has given to others. I recommend all leaders, especially young leaders read this book. It will help you get your priorities straight.
