Have you ever had burning questions about the future, or wanted a deeper understanding of your life? Have you ever had a problem that you would love to know why you have it, or even better, to be able to solve it easily? Have you ever wondered why your life is so hard, why you have so many challenges with health, career, finances and relationships? Or maybe you just want to know more about how the universe works and why things turn out the way they do. Well if you've ever wondered this then you're in the right place. In this book you can get the answers to some of your most burning questions. As you read this book you'll discover that you're not alone. Others have struggled in exactly the same ways you have. They've asked the same questions and had the similar challenges. The information in this book comes not from Lisa Turner, but through Lisa. She knows very well that it's not that easy to believe, given her background is as an engineer with a PhD in Aero-acoustics. So this isn't your usual fluffy you're loved so much by us in the spiritual realm kind of channelling book. Lisa's guides give it to you straight - they don't flatter with platitudes. Lisa refers to her guides only because she doesn't have a better term or label for them. She refers to them as they because it's not one person. It's not one soul. The best way of describing them is like a consciousness or awareness. They don't have a physical body, and they have never experienced a physical body. What that means is, contrary to the popular belief about many spirit guides, that they are not the dead spirit of someone who once lived. This book is a collection of questions posed by Lisa's students, clients and herself along with the answers to those questions from No-One-Guide.
