

Just Say Anything (Life or Death Series Book 2)

Love means never having to say you're sorry...for all that other stuff you said. After being diagnosed with Asperger Syndrome when she was eight, Traci Tanner went on to graduate from Johns Hopkins University medical school at the top of her class, then land a coveted residency at Our Lady of Mercy, one of the best hospitals in New York. As far as Traci is concerned, her Aspergers is like a superpower that allows her to focus on only the important things in life, and ignore the rest. Unfortunately, that superpower fails when it comes to dealing with her super-humanly obnoxious coworker, Dr. Brady. The fact that Dr. Brady has a way of getting under Traci's skin metaphorically speaking, of course, disturbs her on levels she didn't even realize she possessed. ER resident Conrad Brady is tired of not being taken seriously by his fellow doctors. Is it his fault that his father is Hollywood's most famous soap opera doctor? No. Can he help it if he's unintentionally hilarious, and a walking, breathing chick magnet? No, he cannot. And okay, so maybe he's slightly irked at his best friend Sam, for settling down in the prime of his wingman years and seeming disgustingly happy about it, to boot. Brady doesn't have time to wallow in self-pity (much), because he's about to go up against his most hated colleague—the overachieving and quite possibly cybernetic ice queen, Dr. Tanner—for a dangerous and totally awesome career opportunity. One way or another, Tanner is going DOWN. Even if Brady has to sleep with her to make it happen. Scratch that—especially if he has to sleep with her. JUST SAY ANYTHING is a novel of New Adult romance, with some of the same characters you'll recognize from the first book in Isobel Irons' Life or Death series, WAKE FOR ME.
