

Free At Last (The Katarina Trilogy Book 3)

In the conclusion to The Katarina Trilogy, Kat is eager to finally begin a new life, one that provides stability for her and her son. Confident that the past is ultimately where it belongs, she helps her fiance search for closure from traumatic events that took place years before they met. What they find pleasantly shocks them and just when Kat believes things are starting to fall into place for her new family, an unforeseen complication from the past rears its ugly head and threatens to destroy her happiness for good. Powerless to control the outcome this time, Kat finds herself questioning her faith in God. However, after a series of events occur, she finally realizes Gods plan for her is beyond her wildest dreams. In Free At Last, discover how Kat, through a renewed sense of faith, buries the past forever and begins the life she is meant to live.
