

A Love Worth Dying For 3

Patrice and Justin are still both willing to fight for a love that is on a shaky foundation. With Justin serving his one year sentence, its time for Patrice to step up and be the wife she proclaimed to be. She now has the task of running her husbands business and maintaining his position on top. Being the daughter of a legend doesnt always mean she will be loved. Can Patrice handle the pressures of watching her back, running a street business, and being a loving wife and mother? Patrick is now a senior and is in between two choices. One being to take the educational route and staying on the right path and the second is helping his sister run the streets. As Patrick soon finds out, the streets are not the same as they were when his father was a boss, and not everyone will respect him. He also faces a new dilemma. His high school love, Lucys father, doesnt want his daughter to have anything to do with him anymore. Then when an unexpected old flame moves next door to Lucy, he realizes that he just may lose the one girl he let close to him. Can Patrick handle the pressures of growing up without a real father figure to tell him what is wrong or right, or will he give in to the pressures of the world around him? As the streets heat up, Patrice realizes that she is the center of attention. Everyone wants to eat, and she is at the head of the table. She is forced to slow down and realize that this game is not so easy for a woman. However she is now knee deep and the water is only getting higher. Will she be able to stay above the rising the tide until her husband returns? Or will she realize that the price of love is worth more than she is willing to pay? Find out in the finale of A Love Worth Dying For 3.
