

Tied Between (We Kinky Three Book 2)

Screwing two guys? Now thats easy. But living with them? Thats an entirely different story. Erin Slater loves her life. With the career she has always dreamed of just one phone call away, and two hot guys who have tied up her personal life in the very best of ways, what more could a girl ask for? Yet as hot and steamy as the sex is with Jack and Simon, sex alone does not a relationship make. They each have their own demons to battle, but acknowledging them can be much harder than it seems. Not having enough time to spend with the guys is wearing her down, and as much as she loves being Simons submissive, she needs more from him than the occasional workout in the attic. Simon is still hung up on what happened in the past, and sometimes, shes not sure that he has realized that Jack and Erin can give him everything hed ever want. Then there is Jackwho is learning to accept Erin and Simon as they are, but still wears his heart on his sleevea constant reminder that Erin is not the only one who needs so much more than they have right now. And with their track record? Lets just say that she hopes that they can work this out before they end up unravelling all ties between them.
